About

Myriam joined Gornitzky & Co. as an associate in 2021.

Myriam has a PhD in international law and human rights from the University of London.

Prior to joining the firm, Myriam was an Adjunct Lecturer at the Hebrew University and the University of Haifa, as well as King's College London. Myriam completed her internship at the Ministry of Justice, working in the International Law section of the Office of the Deputy Attorney General.

Myriam's main area of practice is international arbitration, public international law and human rights and she has published extensively in the area of Counterterrorism and Human Rights.

At the firm, Myriam is involved in representing clients in arbitration proceedings, in both ad hoc and major arbitral institutions, including the ICC, and working as Tribunal Secretary to Arbitral Tribunals.

Myriam also provides legal advice on public international and human rights matters

Myriam was ranked as Rising Star in the Legal 500 EMEA Rankings for 2024 in International Arbitration.

She is the co-founder of the firm's community of international lawyers and also co-founded the Israeli branch of the Very Young Arbitration Practitioners Network.
