

Arbitration & Mediation | Class Actions & Derivative Suits | Commercial | Corporate | Restructuring & Insolvency | Tax | White Collar Crime

Litigation & Dispute Resolution

Gornitzky & Co. is one of Israel's top litigation and dispute resolution law firms with substantial experience in representing companies, corporations, individuals and foreign conglomerates in intricate commercial disputes spanning over multiple jurisdictions. Our lawyers are well known for their ability to represent clients in highly complex and large scaled disputes before all judicial bodies; including the Israeli Supreme Court, the High Court of Justice and arbitration tribunals (in Israel and abroad).

Gornitzky is the preferred litigation firm for many of the largest publicly traded and leading private Israeli companies in commercial, criminal and civil matters. Our lawyers have extensive experience in all types of litigation disputes, such as contractual, project related and shareholders' disputes, as well as in appearing before legislation committees and the subsequent appeals to the High Court of Justice. The firm represents leading insurance companies, banks and financial institutions in class actions and derivative suits, venture capital funds as well as all forms of disputes for investors.

The litigation and dispute resolution department at Gornitzky represents clients in commercial litigation, mediation and a variety of administrative and environmental proceedings, as well as domestic and international arbitration. In addition to general commercial litigation, the firm has specialists in the areas of finance, IT, media, property, real estate and construction, insurance, and international and domestic tax disputes. Our team also represents clients in the litigious aspects of the employment of senior managers' at large companies and related labor laws, with an emphasis on public companies and companies operating internationally.

Gornitzky's lawyers also specialize in the representation of high net worth individuals, shareholders and companies in their litigation matters involving family law. Our office represents clients in complex financial conflicts arising from the dismemberment of families, including the representation of third parties involuntarily involved in such conflicts. We represent these clients before various family courts.

Our litigation and dispute resolution department provides clients with consultations prior to potential disputes thus to focus on aiding prevention or mitigation of such disputes.

Key Contacts

Pinhas Rubin
Firm Chairman

Ofer Tzur
Head of Litigation