Gornitzky represents Materna in an agreed order with the Israel Antitrust Authority

News

Gornitzky represented Materna Industries in an agreed order with the Israel Antitrust Authority, whereby the Commissioner will not declare Materna, Israel's leading infant nutrition company, a member of a concentration group (oligopoly) under the amended Israeli Restrictive Trade Practices Law. Terms for infant formula distribution to Israeli hospitals have also been regulated in the agreement.

Materna Industries Limited Partnership, owned by Osem-Nestle (TASE: OSEM), was represented by Avner Finkelshtein (Partner), Sagit Ohana-Livne (Partner) and Ehud Katzenelson.
