

February 16, 2016

Elite Elkon (Partner) in the "The Lawyer" Magazine.

Client Updates

Elite Elkon (Partner) surveys the major changes anticipated to take place in the Israeli Credit Market, mainly aimed to reduce concentration and to increase and diversify the sources of credit for retail and SMEs, in a featured article in the prominent UK legal magazine - "The Lawyer". In her article, regarding financial law in Israel, Mrs. Elkon sheds light on the changes and new contemplated opportunities arising, including, among others, The Shtrum committees' recommendations to sell the major Israeli credit card companies held by the country's leading banks and easing the regulatory regime on payment card companies.

Key Contacts

Elite Elkon
Partner