

August 20, 2018

Israel is missing out on the cannabis industry.

Publications

The government is dragging its feet in terms of decision-making regarding the export of cannabis abroad. As of today, deals are being made in Israel for the export of technology and knowledge in the field of cannabis, yet they are inadequate for realizing the true potential of the local industry.

Elite Elkon (Partner) and Alon Peled (Associate) in an op-ed for TheMarker magazine on the cannabis export industry.

Key Contacts

Elite Elkon
Partner

Alon Peled
Partner